Wild about Gary

EVERY so often an ordinary match is made special by the sight of an outstanding youngster. Gary Chivers was such a player at SUNDER-LAND.

LAND.
Although CHELSEA lost 2—I in a game they well deserved to draw. Chivers, after only a handful of first team appearances. Is clearly a central defender with a fine future. Geoff Hurst, suffering his second, consecutive defeat since becoming an anager, knows that it will, take three years rather than five matches to youngster around whom a stable team can be built.

With little or no money in the bank, it will be the ability of Hurst and assistant Böbby Gould to coach youngsters, rather than to motivate, which will be the decisive factor in Chelsea's long-term revival.

Chièers, calm and authoritative partner for the massive Micky Droy, is the kind of lucky a minute after Tim Gilbert had scored Sunder-land's 55th minute winner when promising Gary Johnson flung himself at a cross from lan Britton, only for his header to hit 'keeper Barry Siddall on the legs.

Chelsea, looking competent and confident, were never overawed in the first half hour and led with a slightly lucky header by Johnson from Gary Locke's free kick before Kevin Arnott equalised.

Sunderland improved but without the injured John Hawley and Bob Lee, they were seldom really convincing.

MICKY DROY

I LIKE the "new" SPURS . . . what a difference a year has made to them!

There are three very good reasons for their climb up the First Division mountain.

First, Terry Yorath has given them a stability in midfield and is the perfect foil for the skills of Glenn Hoddle and Osvaldo Ardiles.

Second, the acceptance of English-style Soccer by Ricardo Villa and Ardiles— they looked good and worked hard.

Three, there is more steel in the side these days: When MIDDLESBROUGH had their moments, the Spurs defence stood the test well and were worth their 0-0 draw.

Scramble

The Londoners were for-tunate twice, however. In the first-half, Mark Proctor went round Milija Aleksic, but the energetic Villa scrambled the shot off the line.

And, nine minutes after the break, Micky Burns headed David Armstrong's corner kick on to the bar from a Jimmy Armfield

But, apart from this it was But, apart from this it was spurs calling the tune. Chris Jones could have had a hattrick, Villa one goal and Hoddle another in the first-half alone had Jim Platt, in Boro's goal, not been at his best. Then two minutes from the end, Gerry Armstrong rattled the Middlesbrough bar with the best shot of the match. match.

But Boro undefeated at home this season, are never easy to beat. That is why Tottenham suggest to me that they might be going places. Perhaps a UEFA place for a start this year?

Liverpool for ific-Biamon

MIKE CHANNON added his voice to the many who claim MANCHESTER UNITED aren't good enough to win the Championship.

Channon, fresh from a physical and mental mauling that would have reduced a lesser combatant to tears, insisted after SOUTHAMPTON'S 1—0 defeat that Liverpool remain the obvious title bet.

United boss Dave Sexton could reply—but doesn't—that if someone doesn't soon take a point from United at home the critics may become a dying breed by Christmas.

United's seventh Old Trafford win in as many outings was nicked by a fluke headed deflection from Southampton's Manny Andruszewski, that stemmed from a Lou Macari challenge.

If it was an unsatisfactory way to bag the points United can claim that Southampton's survival for 80 minutes was just as tenuous.

Betrayed

Lawrie McMenemy did his

Lawrie McMenemy did his best to convince everyone that his Saints deserved a point for guts.

He pointed out that the absent Alan Ball would normally have policed the far post—deserted in the ninth minute by Graham Baker when Wilkins floated the ball across.

He reminded everyone that with Ball, centre half Dave Watson and keeper Terry Gennoe all confined to sick beds, his lopsided team was still looking for a point at the end the end.

But his theme was betrayed by the blistered hands of deputy 'keeper Peter Wells at one end of the pitch and the battlescarred face of Channon

He agreed it was not an easy game, but was delighted his side had proved it could go away, win, and play football at the same time.

On the other side of the coln, United manager John Docherty said of the 2—1 defeat: "That was the lucklest two points Luton will get this season."

Even though his club has gone the last eight matches without a-win, Docherty does not consider relegation. "We

"Of course I'm disappointed, but I thought we played better in this game than for several weeks. I could not ask for more from my players."
For nearly an hour it was deadlock, then suddenly in a three-minute spell Luton were two goals up two goals up. Bob Hatton slotted home the first and David Moss hammered his sixth penalty of the season.

Although Alan Biley scored for the first time in nearly two months, the goal came two minutes from time and far too late for United.

LITTLE Geoff Pike climbed off the Upton Park treatment table just an hour before the start to earn Hammers 1—0 victory.

Fike, in doubt because of a calf injury sustained in the League Cup tie at Sunderland last week, netted the winner and jolted Wrexham's promotion hopes.

Manager John Lyall said:

"It was a bit tight and Geoff had to have special treatment. But I was delighted it worked out for him—and us."

The win puts Hammers only four points away from second place in the table, with a match in hand.

Pike's turn

It was thanks to Pike's equaliser last week that West Ham face Sunderland in tonight's League Cup replay at Upton Park.

But they will be without Trevor Brooking Stuart Pear-son and Paul Brush.

Wrexham manager Arfon

our defence had a good game.

to score."

New boy Ian Edwards, Wrexham's £125,000 midweek signing from Chester, showed some useful touches.
